I have had an amazing experience at one MUN conference, which is NISMUN. I represented Bosnia and Herzegovina in Security Council. At this conference, I made several points of information and speeches. Being a delegate has helped me become a stronger speaker and thinker. I always think about my country's opinion before making a speech or point of information, and I make amendments whenever I see something that could be improved. Although I have only attended one conference, I have learned a lot about how the conferences work and what is expected of the delegates. I believe that MUN nurtures the minds of future UN delegates who will work together to find solutions to the serious issues happening around the planet. I hope you will consider me for this position.
